

Electronic Bingo

What It Is & How To Play

Though bingo halls have remained almost the same, there has been a slight change in the equipment being used to play bingo. Electronic bingo is a form of bingo game in which player dabs the computer screen while playing bingo at the hall.

What is Electronic Bingo

Electronic bingo is played in exactly the same way as traditional bingo game, but it is played with handheld bingo devices.

The introduction of these handheld bingo devices has made it easy to manage the process of multiple bingo cards at the same time.

It has enabled players to play bingo in a more accessible & organized way.

How To Play

- Players will choose the number of cards they want to play during the game.
- The caller calls out a number and the player needs to dab the called number on their machines.
- Once a winning pattern gets made, a screen will appear on the device. Then the player should say 'BINGO' and verify the winning card.
